Task 2. Read the text. Choose the correct answer per question (A,B,C, D or E).

He stopped the car and studied the opening with his field glasses. Then he motioned to the driver to go on and the car moved slowly along, the driver avoiding wart-hog holes and driving around the mud castles ants had built. Then, looking across the opening, Wilson suddenly turned and said, "By God, there they are!" And looking where he pointed, while the car jumped forward and Wilson spoke in rapid Swahili to the driver, Macomber saw three huge, black animals looking almost cylindrical in their long heaviness, like big black tank cars, moving at a gallop across the far edge of the open prairie. They moved at a stiff-necked, stiff bodied gallop and he could see the upswept wide black horns on their heads as they galloped heads out; the heads not moving. "They're three old bulls," Wilson said. "We'll cut them off before they get to the swamp." Ernest Hemingway

Task 4.

Kaliningrad, Russia
19 November.

Dear Tom,

Thanks for your letter I was glad to hear from you again. Sorry for long not writting as I was very busy with my home work.

Well, in your letter you asked me about football championships wich will take place in Russia in the next year. It will be football World Cup. In my mind, it is the largest football event. Many teams from different ~~states~~ will come here to take part. Some matches will be in Kaliningrad. We are seriously preparing for it. There are new roads, beautiful house fronts, signs wich can help to find right ~~road~~ way to some objects, special buid boards. Also was built a 5ta drum in the centre of Kaliningrad near to Cathedral. It is located in island. In winter many peoples will have classes to prepare to meet international guests and help them for time of event. Some days ago ^{cup} was in Kaliningrad. People could see it and take pictures.

So if you arrive to my city you will have to see not only sport matches. I can tell you about some interesting places. In the town you can visit Kaliningrad zoo. There are many kinds of animals like snakes, bears, zebras and so on. Moreover, there is a Museum of World Ocean. You can see tropical fishes, sharks, seastars, shrimps and other sea animals. Besides museum can show you original stones and minerals, bones of sea creatures which live many years ago. You can walk on real boat and feel yourself like sailor. Kaliningrad has a Museum of Amber. But you can see it not only ~~behind~~ through the glass, you have an opportunity to go to seaside towns and take pieces of amber on the beach. If you don't find it, you can buy magnets, pictures and other things with amber in nearly souvenir shops.

So I'd better to go now as I have to help my mother. I will be happy if you come to Kaliningrad.

Keep in touch,

Best wishes.

Task 5. This year is a year of Cultural Heritage. It means that we give a special attention to arts from different ages, before ^{from times} Christ to nowadays. In this article you can read about some of the world famous ~~out~~ places.

Imagine that we are in the capital of our country, in Moscow. We ^{are} standing on the Red Square and seeing many interested things, but we put our eyes on Saint Vasily's Cathedral. Its beautiful building was created by two architects in XVI century. Cathedral is very famous around the world. It is done in specific style. Church is very beautiful and bright. Gold tops are shining in sunny days. Paint is full of colours. We can see yellow, red, green, blue and other points. It is real treasure of Russian culture. Tourists also like visit this place. Years ago it was church, where you can join to religion, but now it is just museum.

The second place which we will observe today is located in other city ~~of Rus~~. It is "north capital of Russia" - ~~Sankt~~ Saint-Petersburg. It is also religious building, but it was created many years later than the previous one. I suppose, it ~~was~~ built about XIX century. It seems like a classical style: strict forms, light colours. ~~Also we can see columns.~~ It is more calm and serious. As the Moscow Cathedral it is lovely tourist places, and in the past it had church function.

In conclusion, I would say that we have the ~~greatest~~ greatest Cultural Heritage and people all around the world must understand value ~~from~~ ^{of} these objects and save it. In this year you have a ^{good} special opportunity to visit ~~many~~ a lot of ~~galleries~~ art galleries, museums, cathedrals, monuments and other places, because only in this year they will organise special events.

Example: 0. There are both good and bad aspects to Aneel's job.

Answer: T

Subject: Time to escape?

The problem I have is that my job is very well paid, but I find it really boring.

I work in computers, as a programmer, and I've had the job since I left college when I was 19. I had the chance to go to university then, but I saw an advert for this job and I thought it sounded perfect for me. I've always liked working with computers – I got my first one when I was nine years old – and at the age of 19 the money they were offering was too good to ignore, so I applied for the job and got it.

That was three years ago, so I'm 22 now and a bit worried because, although the money is still great, I really don't want to be in the same job, in the same office, for the rest of my life! I bought a flat last year, when I was still enjoying my job, but now I think I'd like to do something different. Money isn't a problem because even after buying my flat I've still got a lot of savings, so I was thinking about going away for a few months, perhaps to South America. I don't want to sell my flat, but I could rent it out to someone while I was travelling. Has anyone else been in a similar situation to this? I feel like I need some advice.

(Aneel, Nottingham)

1. Aneel was interested in computers before he got his job.
2. Aneel's salary is lower now than it was when he started.
3. Aneel feels differently about his job than he did a year ago.
4. Buying a flat used up most of Aneel's savings.
5. Aneel doesn't like the idea of someone else living in his flat.
